Johns Creek, GA, Wednesday, September 21, 2022 (Immediate release) – An international fashion show of “high style”, high tea, and high hopes” is slated for Sunday, December 4 from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm at the Standard Country Club in Johns Creek hosted by Rotary Johns Creek -North Fulton club.

Highlighting this year’s fashion show is international custom jewelry designer from Taiwan Catherine HSU.

“We are thrilled to highlight Catherine’s custom costume jewelry worn by each of our Rotary member models along with customized international clothing for the holiday season”, exhorted Rotary Johns Creek-North Fulton club president Michelle Hanchey.

This year’s event is to raise awareness and funds for the Georgia Student Finance Commission. It is one of the most successful state student aid operations in the nation helping with a variety of grants, loans, and scholarships to offset higher education costs.

Nearly 200 guests will be greeted by a glass of champagne before enjoying High Tea served on antique china from Atlanta Vintage Glassware. Delectable High Tea fare includes mini tea sandwiches, mini desserts, fruit tarts, and scones with whipped cream.

To make things more interesting $5.00 “lucky draw tickets” will be drawn as a giveaway throughout the fashion show. Big ticket items include a private makeup/photo session with renowned artist Meredith Kurbel whose work is featured on the cover of numerous magazines, valued over $1,000. Many smaller give aways include Dermani MedSpa $250 gift certificate, Dekalash $145 gift certificate, and a $175 grill master gift basket

Admission tickets are selling quickly. Over 20% sold this week at $99 person or $900 for a table of ten. Order your ticket now: <http://JCRFashionshow.com>.

“Rotary is about service above self, and it is an honor to present this event with our Titanium sponsor Awesome Team,” said Michelle.
